Depending on your individual circumstances and insurance requirements, we may need to apply for a medical report from a Doctor who has cared for you. Before Depending on your individual circumstances and insurance requirements, we may need to apply for a medical report from a Doctor who has cared for you. Before giving your consent for us to do this, by completing and signing the Declaration on the application form, you should read this carefully, as it sets out the procedure for dealing with medical reports and your rights under the Access to Medical Reports Act 1988. These are set out in more detail below, but the four main points are as follows:-

- You can withhold your consent 1. 2. You can see the report before it is sent to us, or during the six months
- thereafter You can ask the Doctor if he/she will amend any part of the report, which 3.
- you consider to be incorrect or misleading. If the doctor does not agree, you may append your comments. The doctor can withhold the report – or any part of it – from you, if he/she thinks you would be harmed by seeing it. 4.

You do not have to give your consent but if you withhold it, we will be unable to proceed with your application. If you do give consent, you can say whether you wish to see the report and, if so, whether you wish to see it before or after it is sent to our Chief Medical Officer. In any event, we will notify you if we apply for a report and inform your doctor before the report is sent to us. If you wish to see the report, you have 21 days in which to arrange with the doctor to see it. The faster you act, the faster your application can be considered.

Once you have seen a report before it is sent to us, the doctor cannot submit it until you have given the doctor your consent to do so. Whether or not you say you wish to see the report before it is sent to us, the doctor must let you see a copy for wish to see the report before its sent to us, the doctor hids tery you sek the doctor for a copy of the report, the doctor can charge you a reasonable fee to cover the costs. You may write to the doctor, asking him/her to amend any part of the report upon which you and the doctor disagree, and which the doctor is not prepared to alter, you can have a statement of your views attached to the report. The doctor can withhold any part of the report from you if, in his/her opinion:-

- to do so would be likely to cause serious harm to your physical or mental health or that of others, or indicate the doctor's decisions or intentions towards you, Or
- disclosure would be likely to reveal information about, or the identity of, another person who has supplied information about you, unless that person has consented or the information relates to, or has been supplied by, a Health professional involved in caring for you.

In such cases, the doctor must notify you and you will be limited to seeing only a remaining part of the report. If it is the whole report, which is affected, the doctor must not send it to us unless you give your consent.

I understand my rights under the Access to Medical Reports Act 1988 as described in section (e) and I consent to the society seeking medical information from any doctor who at any time has attended me concerning anything which affects my physical or mental health, or seeking information from any insurance company to which a proposal has been made for insurance on my physical or mental health, or insurance on my life and I authorise the giving of such information.
